oversees all operations at McCarran International Airport in Las Vegas, as well as general aviation airports in North Las Vegas, Henderson, Jean and Overton, Nevada. Vassiliadis is the eleventh person to lead Clark County's aviation system since McCarran was establish in 1948, and is the first woman to serve as Director.

Vassiliadis works with several national organizations that are critical to the U.S. and global travel industries. Since February 2011, she has overseen McCarran's efforts as an Executive Board Member of the U.S. Travel Association, a Washington, D.C.-based trade group that promotes American travel interests both domestically and worldwide. In February 2014, Vassiliadis was elected by member vote to serve as the Association's Board Treasurer. Since 2009, Vassiliadis has been an advisory board member for the International Aviation Law Institute, a premier source for research, analysis, and study of international aviation law and policy based out of the DePaul University College of Law in Chicago.

In September 2011, Nevada Gov. Brian Sandoval appointed Vassiliadis a member of the Nevada Homeland Security Commission, which is responsible for setting goals and programs to counteract or prevent potential acts of terrorism or related emergencies; she had previously served in this role from August 2004 through July 2007. Vassiliadis has been a member of the United Service Organizations' Las Vegas Advisory Council since April 2010, and was proud to participate in the opening of Nevada's first USO Center at McCarran on Veterans Day 2010.

Vassiliadis came from the Clark County Department of Finance, where she amassed 16 years of progressive government experience. As director of finance for Clark County, she was responsible for a $2.2 billion operating budget and a $2.4 billion capital improvement plan. Before joining Clark County, she worked for the City of Las Vegas Finance Department, beginning as a financial analyst and progressing to manager of finance and budget.

A native of Chicago, Vassiliadis earned a bachelor's degree in accountancy from DePaul University. She and her husband have two children and enjoy a variety of community activities ### the world recognized the importance of finding new and creative ways to spread the word about Rotary. The Rotary Rose Parade Float Committee float is perhaps the longest-standing, and best-known, of these projects. Every year for the last 37 years, Rotarians across the United States and Canada have carried on the tradition of designing and building a float to enter in the Rose

message from RI President Ravindran:

Parade. This year, the float will be seen by an international television and social media audience of over 83 million people in more than 200 countries!

I look forward to riding on the float in this year's parade, and congratulate the Rotary Rose Parade Float Committee for their creativity, commitment, and hard work. The float is a wonderful way to raise Rotary's profile, and to show how Rotarians can Be A Gift to the World, by Working Together for Peace. K.R. "Ravi" Ravindran - Rotary International President Working Together For Peace
