MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear Rotarians,

Here we are at the beginning of March, which for some reason reminded me of the Ides of March, despite that fact that the Ides of March is actually the 15th of the month. As a side note, one can only imagine that the ancient Romans, who conceived of the concept of the Ides, had the foresight to predict that our current day IRS would make March 15th the day of reckoning for corporate taxes!

The Ides of March is also famously when Julius Caesar was assassinated by Brutus and others, as memorialized in the Shakespeare play of the same name. In that play, there is a line by Marc Antony after the deed is done that resonated with me:

*"The evil that men do lives after them;
The good is oft interred with their bones"*

I like to think that our service through Rotary, and our contributions to both The Rotary Foundation and our Las Vegas Rotary Foundation, in a way turns this concept on its head. The good we do will live on through the lives we change today, and through the continuing good future Rotarians will be able to do, in perpetuity through the Foundations.

We should all be proud, and perhaps a bit humbled, to part of this amazing organization!

David Thorson
President 2016 -2017
Las Vegas Rotary Club
