

James Garriss Historical Climatologist

Back in the 1970s in Fresno County, California, "The Raisin Capital of the World" had heavy rains just as its grapes were lying out to dry resulting in thousands of tons of soggy, rotting raisins. A major cereal company that used raisins in its products suddenly had to spend millions finding a new supply. Later that year, a vice president for the company was put in charge of finding an advisor to warn them ahead of time if weather disasters would threaten their bottom line.

He found Dr. Iben Browning, a scientist with degrees in physics, math, chemistry and a PhD in biology.

Dr. Browning was one of the CIA's top scientists, able to coordinate scientists and scientific disciplines. However, his real passion was weather and the new discipline of climatology. The company gave Browning a contract and the business was born and has been providing accurate 3-24 month climate forecasts for over 40 years

James Garriss is the third generation of the Browning family to continue the business. Although legally blind, James has developed a knowledge base and presentation style that is as impressive as it is inspiring. As the third generation of his family in the business, James began his career with Browning Media when he was four years old, photocopying jet stream maps from the stacks of the University of New Mexico libraries. After obtaining his graduate degree, he has now been a partner in the business for more than 6 years and is leading a new direction in historical climatology, bringing a fresh economic perspective.

James is hired to speak around the world to agriculture, finance, mining and other industries that are effected by changing weather patterns. Recent appearances include Nomura Investment Forum Asia, Singapore; Le Club B, Hamburg, Germany & Toronto, Canada; Sabey Data Corporation, Herndon, Virginia; Juice Producers Association, Sanibel Harbour, Florida; Cowboy Hall of Fame, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; Texas Southwest Cattle Ranchers Association, Ft. Worth, Texas; Colorado State University, Fort Collins, CO; CLSA Investor's Forum, Hong Kong, London, New York; P. Allen Smith Garden2Blog, Little Rock, Arkansas.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear Rotarians,

For my penultimate President Message, I thought I would provide you with my last lyrical riddle – as always with a poignant meaning (at least to me!):

*I turn my back to the wind to catch my breath,
Before I start off again, driven on,
Without a moment to spend, to pass an evening with a drink and a friend,
I let my skin get too thin, I'd like to pause no matter what I pretend,
Like some pilgrim who learns to transcend,
Learns to live as if each step was the end*

*Freeze this moment a little bit longer!
Make each sensation a little bit stronger!
Make each impression a little bit stronger!
Freeze this motion a little bit longer!*

*I turn my face to the sun, close my eyes, let my defenses down,
All those wounds that I can't get unwound,
I let my past go too fast, no time to pause,
If I could slow it all down! Like some captain, whose ship runs aground,
I can wait until the tide comes around*

*Time stand still!
I'm not looking back but I want to look around me now
Time stands still!
See more of the people and the places that surround me now*

*Summer's going fast, nights growing colder,
Children growing up, old friends growing older,
Freeze this moment a little bit longer!
Make each sensation a little bit stronger!*

*Experience slips away
The innocence slips away*

WETZEL AWARDS

Major General Glen D. VanHerck, the Commander of United States Air Force Warfare Center, Nellis Air Force Base, is leaving Las Vegas to assume a new position at the Pentagon in Washington, D.C. Just a few weeks ago he addressed our club. We will always be grateful for his strong support of the quarterly Wetzel Awards Ceremony. Thank you sir. We wish you God Speed.

Pictured above are the five Airmen that we honor today. Last Thursday, Past President Steve Linder served as the emcee of the quarterly Wetzel Awards. President Dave Thorson participated in each of the five presentations. Joining them at Nellis were Janet Linder and Bob Fisher.

Thanks to the outstanding leadership of Jacqueline Thornhill, the ceremony has become so popular on base that we have now moved into a larger facility on base for the quarterly presentations. You can see the spirit of their fellow Airmen and the support each honoree receives. If you have never attended a ceremony, we hope that you will join us next year.
