MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear Rotarians

Every December, Rotary International encourages clubs to celebrate the last month of the calendar year as “Family Month”. As members, we all realize the importance of the “home team” in fulfilling our responsibilities as business professionals and Rotarians. Without the support of our beloved family members we won’t be able to succeed in the marketplace or in Rotary.

In our club, we don’t just celebrate the importance of family once a year. Under the leadership of PP Karen Whisenhunt and Jaime Goldsmith, the Family of Rotary has a quarterly luncheon open to the spouses of all members. This group collects toiletries for the USO as well as organizing and participating in many of our club socials.

We have often heard from members that our club is like family to them since many of their most treasured friendships were made around these weekly gatherings. Through our socials, we get to know the spouses, parents, children and grandchildren of our members. Many of these kids follow in their father’s footsteps and join our club i.e. Anna Karabachev, Ryan Hamilton & Matt Phillips. This year our club also welcomed grandchildren (Tom Thomas & Mary Ann Avnet) and will add another three babies in 2018 (Tom Axtell, Janelle Lozano & Amanda Gordon).

But, I don’t believe our club has ever experienced an engagement proposal at one of our club’s social events as we saw at our club’s annual Christmas party last Thursday. Our club extends the warmest congratulations and best wishes to “Captain” Kirk Holmes and his wonderful fiancée Becca for a lifetime of happiness!
