Photography, Adventure & Expression

Many years ago, at about the same time that I purchased my first 35mm SLR camera, a friend introduced me to backpacking in the Sierra Nevada Mountains. Since then, Las Vegas has provided a convenient starting point for photography trips to the high country of the mountain west, as well as the unique landscapes of the desert southwest. Visits to many beautiful places in the Orient, United Kingdom, and Europe have been added to those adventures and we look forward to new travels in the near future.

I very much enjoyed and appreciate the time I had at Rocky Mountain School of Photography for helping me make the transition from film to digital photography. RMSP was the start of my journey to accumulate 10,000 hours to achieve mastery of a subject, an idea promoted by Malcolm Gladwell in his book "Outliers". I have learned that the more I know about photography, the more I know I don't know.

My work has been represented by galleries in Utah, Montana, and Texas. I have been fortunate to have had the support of private and corporate clients including: Fine Art at Work, Morgan Stanley, Redstone Health Center, Investment Counsel Company, Nevada Title, and Rachel's Kitchen, among others. My work has been displayed in several publications including Photographic Society of America Journal and The Oregon Coast Photo Road Trip by Rick Sammon. The images I present today and others may be viewed at www.SteveCaseyPhotography.com

Photography has been about visiting special places and seeing the beauty that surrounds me. Each image represents a story; some long, some short, but all memorable. The images bring back the moment – senses heightened, sounds of the place, the touch of the breeze, friends sharing the experience, my desire to soak it all in.

I am grateful for a life that has given to me the opportunity to visit such special places and see such wonderful sights. I am grateful for the encouragement of friends and family, especially my mother, who was the first to prod me to do more with my photography. I am grateful for those who have shared these experiences with me. I am grateful for all the beauty in the world and the desire to seek it out. I am especially grateful for my talented "art director", who helps me "see" and explore the beauty around us, my wife, Linda.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Bingo

When we filled out surveys at the beginning of this 2020-2021 Rotary year, two of the most frequent suggestions were more social events and more opportunities to raise money for local service projects. While social distancing and limitations on the size of group gatherings have made both of those challenging, we have been able to do some of each thanks to the ingenuity of so many of our members.

Tina Bishop put together a virtual wine tasting with a professional sommelier that raised money for local community grants. The event included on-line socializing before and after the tastings, and some clever members hosted events within the event for small groups in their homes.

Building on the success of that event, Tina is now organizing a virtual bingo party to provide another opportunity to socialize and to raise money for one of the service projects that we are currently supporting – you pick the project when you win. This will also provide an opportunity for you to invite friends who you would like to introduce Rotary to in a setting that should be familiar to most
