MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

There have been many studies done about the health benefits of friendship. People with friends live longer, are healthier and happier. Friendships with our neighbors can mean the difference between life and death in tragedies and natural disasters. Friends increase our sense of purpose and belonging. They give us confidence and bolster our sense of self, especially during difficult times. And we are more powerful as a group than alone. These are all really good reasons to build goodwill and better friendships.

A recent Axios article talked about the power of friendship between rich and poor. The article graphically illustrated the relationship between adult income and friendship across class lines for children of low income parents. "For a poor kid, having wealthy friends is one of the strongest determinants of economic mobility later in life." This was a stronger indicator of future income than factors like family structure and school quality, as well as the racial makeup and job availability in the child's community.

What really made this resonate was its relevance to our mission statement. Helping Youth to Succeed through Literacy, Education and Life Skills Development. The time we spend with students in the schools we sponsor, when we read with them, help on the playground, show up for Breakfast with Books or shop with them at Santa Clothes really can make a difference!

CENTENNIAL REFLECTIONS

PP DR. HAROLD L. BOYER

Dr. Harold Boyer was the 49th President of the Las Vegas Rotary Club from 1971-1972 after joining the Club in 1955. It is fitting that we are talking about him today since August is Membership Month for Rotary. During his Presidential year one of his primary goals was to upgrade membership with the goal that members would stay and contribute to the club for the benefit of the community. He saw the value of participation. In his words, "We all come here to contribute something. We've sawed a 2X4. We've laid a brick... When it's done you have a tremendous building, or whatever you want, which is made of bricks and sawed 2X4's by you, and me and everybody else." As Helen Keller said, "Alone we can do so little; together we can do so much."

In addition, he worked with others for years to have Las Vegas host a Rotary International Convention.

In 1975 that became a reality and a point of pride for him. His vision included developing future leaders who also have a drive to do things in the community. Rotary members were actively involved with UNLV and the Club structure offered opportunities for emerging leaders.

Harold L. Boyer was born 22 May 1916 in Hartman, Arkansas, a town of 600 in the Ozark foothills near Clarksville. Hartman had been established in 1875 by the Missouri Pacific Railroad in an agricultural area with coal mines nearby. He delivered five metropolitan newspapers beginning at age six.

He attended medical school at the University of Oklahoma, following his physician father into the field. His military career spanned World War II and the Korean War where he served as a Doctor and Surgeon. In 1952 he settled in Las Vegas taking over the dermatology practice of Dr. Carver Coffman. There were only 50 doctors at the time in the Clark County Medical Society, of which he later became president. He became head of emergency at the county hospital, then called Southern Nevada Memorial Hospital, and a consultant of dermatology at Nellis Air Force Base, a post he would hold until the late 1980s. He co-founded the Las Vegas Skin and Cancer Center and later founded the Arkansas Country Doctor Museum in the clinic where his father practiced medicine.

Dr. Boyer funded the Rotary Club Oral History project at UNLV with the request that the Las Vegas Rotary Club be the first project. Due to Dr. Boyer's interest in oral history, trustees Robert E. Clark and William Sheehan of the Harold L. Boyer Charitable Foundation felt it appropriate to create an endowed scholarship in the Department of History at UNLV to encourage students to pursue this specialization.

We will remember his legacy and honor his impact on the Las Vegas Rotary Club. On his deathbed, Dr. Boyer told his family: "Be kind to people. It's the easiest thing in the world to do."
