

Mayor Pamela Goynes-Brown

Pamela Goynes-Brown was elected Mayor of the City of North Las Vegas in 2022 and assumed office that same year on December 1, becoming the first black Mayor in Nevada history. A longtime educator turned public servant, Mayor Goynes-Brown previously served as Councilwoman of North Las Vegas' Ward 2 for over a decade and was the first female African American Councilwoman in that role. She also was the first female African American Mayor Pro-Tempore, having served for two terms.

A long-time resident of North Las Vegas, Mayor Goynes-Brown has lived in the city since 1964 when her family moved to the area. She pursued a career in public education, following in both her parents' footsteps, and worked for the Clark County School district for 35 years before retiring as assistant principal.

Mayor Goynes-Brown holds a master's degree from NOVA Southeastern University in elementary education, with an endorsement in educational leadership. She also holds a bachelor's degree in music education from Prairie View A & M University, where she graduated Magna Cum Laude.

Mayor Goynes-Brown received "Woman of the Year" in 2014 from Zeta Phi Beta Sorority Inc. for her dedication and support to the Las Vegas community. She was recognized the same year for "Women in Business and Politics" from the Urban Chamber of Commerce and for "Women's Equality Day" by the Women's Democratic Club. She has received numerous certificates of recognition and congratulations from various local and state governmental entities. She was awarded the Who's Who among Students in American Universities and Colleges in 1984 and was the recipient of the Ella Cullins Weaver Award in 1982. She is a member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., Tau Beta Sigma Band Sorority and Mu Alpha Sigma Music Honor Society. Mayor Goynes-Brown is a member of National Association of School Administrators, Clark County Educational Professionals Association, Clark County Association of Schools Administrators and Professional Technical Employees.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

While doing research on some of our past club members David Jones said to me “We Stand on the shoulders of giants.” And it really is true. One of these was Marion Earl. According to the biography at the elementary school that was named in his honor he was born in Bunkerville in 1897. In 1912 the family moved to Overton and Marion enrolled in the University of Utah where he obtained a degree in education. He returned to Moapa Valley to teach. In 1927 he moved to Washington DC where he earned a law degree from George Washington University.

“Marion established his law practice in Las Vegas and became active in a number of community organizations including the American Legion, Chamber of Commerce and Rotary Club, where he served as president of each organization. His longest and most difficult assignment began when he and Dr. John s. Park (also a Rotarian) and Mr. J.D. Smith were called to be members of the county draft board. Marion served on the board or 28 years and had the honor of meeting every president from Franklin D. Roosevelt to Richard Nixon. During these years, Marion was the driving force in forming the Boulder Dam Area council for the Boy Scouts of America.

“In the history of men there are individuals who experience life with boundless energy and love. They have a purpose, a mission, a labor to perform. When these few complete their lives, we mourn. However, he would have us remember his example which proclaimed the love of God, family, Nevada and America.”

Marion Earl was president of our club in 1934-35. In1982 he was named Rotarian of the Year. We remember him today for the inspirational induction ceremony he conducted for many years. It is the basis for the induction ceremony script we use today.
