

Nancy Woolf

PROFESSOR EMERITUS, UCLA, LOS ANGELES

Nancy J. Woolf, Emeritus Professor at the University of California, Los Angeles, has been recognized by Marquis Who's Who Top Educators for dedication, achievements, and leadership in neuroscience.

After a renowned 30-year career, she is now recognized as a professor emeritus. In addition to her teaching, Dr. Woolf has been at the forefront of revolutionary research in her field of neuroscience. Her research interests focus on nanoscale structures in the central nervous system and the participation of those structures in higher cognition. She has also studied cytoskeletal abnormalities in Alzheimer's disease, microtubules and microtubule-associated proteins in learning and memory, microtubule-based models of cognition and pharmacological strategies based on proteomics. Additionally, Dr. Woolf has notably mapped the pathways in the central nervous system that manufacture and release acetylcholine, a neurotransmitter whose function is to communicate between nerve cells, and found that the cholinergic system not only relays messages, but it also modifies neuroplasticity, rather, the ability of the nervous system to change in response to experience.

To match her research and studies, Dr. Woolf is the author of, "Conscious Matrix: Our Portal to God," published in 2020, and the co-author of, "Nanoneuroscience: Structural and Functional Roles of the Neuronal Cytoskeleton in Health and Disease" from 2009. She is also the writer behind 75 research articles and is a member of the Society for Neuroscience. For her exceptional teaching and research career, Dr. Woolf was the recipient of the Distinguished Teacher Award from the UCLA Department of Psychology in 2008, as well as an Academic Advancement Program Faculty Recognition Award in 2002. She had also been recognized with the Colby Prize from the Sigma Kappa Foundation in 1990, named a Graduate Woman of the Year by UCLA in 1983 and named a Woman of the Year from College of the Desert in 1976. To attest to her legacy, Dr. Woolf and her accomplishments can also be found in various editions of Who's Who in America, Who's Who in Medicine and Healthcare, Who's Who in Science and Engineering, Who's Who in the West, Who's Who in the World and Who's Who of American Women.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The following highlights of our club's accomplishments were prepared for District Conference. I have compressed 100 years of service into this snapshot.

Recently we held our 44th annual Valedictorian luncheon honoring the top students from area high schools. There were 52 schools represented. Each student briefly introduced themselves, their interests and what and where they intend to study after graduation. It is encouraging to know our future will be in good hands!

For more than 20 years we have honored airmen from Nellis and Creech Air Force Bases with our Wetzel Award. They are the unsung heroes who keep the bases running and the planes in the air. Each quarter four airmen are honored in a ceremony at Nellis, invited to our luncheon meeting where they are introduced and presented with a package that includes a dinner for 2 at Lawry's Prime Rib, tickets to a show on the Strip and other gifts. This award is named in honor of Colonel Scotty Wetzel who was a long-time member of our club.

Our Santa Clothes project has been in existence for 27 years. Each year we partner with our 3 local JC Penney stores and shop with 350 at risk elementary students for essential clothing items. After shopping the students are bussed to a Boy Scout facility where they are treated to lunch and participate in sports activities with UNLV athletes. Over the years we have helped thousands of children and donated over 6 million dollars to the effort. Summer Santa Clothes is a spinoff of this and works with Project 150 to benefit homeless high school students.

For sixty-seven years we have held a joint meeting with the Kiwanis Club on the Wednesday before Thanksgiving. We have a competition to see who can contribute the most to the Salvation Army Food Pantry. At this year's meeting, the Salvation Army received over $40,000 from this event.

Service & Professionalism

We have adopted six at risk elementary schools for whom we provide mini grants for teachers and provide assistance for many school activities. We work with Spread the Word Nevada, supporting their mentor facility at Beckley Elementary, and members read with and mentor students, We work with Green Our Planet to support gardening projects in the schools and help with the Farmers Markets where they sell their produce.

In honor of our Centennial, we have partnered with the Smith Center for the Performing Arts to sponsor several of their educational outreach programs with the Clark County School District, including classroom programs, Student Matinee Performances, and the Nevada High School Musical Theater Awards.

Our club has always been a strong supporter of Rotary International's initiatives, the Rotary Foundation and Polio Plus. In addition, we established the Las Vegas Rotary Foundation to ensure that we are able to continue to fund projects in our community into the future.

We developed a mission statement that better defines who we are and what we do. This has allowed us to focus our efforts and ensure that we will have a bigger impact. We have built an administrative structure that allows the club to operate effectively and with continuity. In addition to the Rotary Constitution and Bylaws, we have adopted Club Bylaws and Continuing resolutions that provide ongoing guidance.

We are constantly working on so many initiatives to support our mission statement and this snapshot features only a few of the larger annual projects we support.

Cathy
