PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Our speaker today is from the ACLU, a non-profit organization in the United States, founded in 1920, that has played a significant role in numerous legal battles and advocacy efforts to protect civil liberties guaranteed by the Constitution and laws of the country. Rotary, on the other hand, is a global non-profit organization, founded in 1905, and is neither a religious nor political organization that follows the motto 'Service Above Self' through humanitarian services, promoting peace and improving communities worldwide, with a vast network of local clubs in different countries.

If we look a little closer, you may be surprised to find similarities in the key features of both organizations:

- Defense of the Underdog: Reaching out to help those in need or less fortunate, a natural human tendency, is rooted in various psychological, moral, and social factors. People often feel compelled to support and protect those who are perceived as disadvantaged, oppressed, or facing overwhelming odds, whether through advocacy efforts or service projects and grants.
- Public Awareness and Perception: Raising awareness about the challenges faced by the underdog, whether through advocacy or international projects, global grants, or polio eradication campaigns, and changing public perceptions, is essential for garnering support from the broader community.
- Sustained Support: Supporting the underdog requires ongoing commitment and effort, whether through advocacy efforts, or through our Mission Statement: Teaching Youth to Succeed Through Literacy, Education and Life Skills Development, humanitarian services, and international projects. Sustainable solutions and long-term support systems are necessary to address their needs effectively.

Both organizations work toward promoting positive change and making the world a better place, but their areas of focus and approaches are distinct. While their areas of focus and approaches differ, they both offer ways to help others and promote social good.

What is the essence of life?

SCRIBE – AUGUST 10 , 2023

AVAILABLE

President Toni Kern called us to order at exactly 12:15. Liz Rothwell presented our invocation while our song leader was Tonya "Golden Pipes" Wagle who led us in The Star Spangled Banner. President Toni thanked the meeting helpers without whom our meeting could not run so smoothly.

There were 0 international guests, 1 visiting Rotarians, 6 guests of Rotarians and 2 guests of the club. President Toni introduced the head table which included PP Randy Campanale, our guest speaker for the day Metro Sergeant Christopher Rivera, and Lt. Monique Bulmer

Announcements:

Bob Werner started by thanking the club for the overwhelming support at the funeral of his daughter. Donations have been made to the Las Vegas Rotary Foundation in her memory and are still being welcomed if anybody is so inclined. Austin Wyrick made an announcement about TLC (leadership camp for 8th graders) and also mentioned that our RYE student Mateo would be a great guest for your family outings! PP Karen Whisenhunt reminded us about our big putting tournament and that there is still space for participants (you do not need to be a golfer for this to be fun) and hole sponsors. She also reminded us about the once a year Youth Protection Training if you will interact with any youths during the Rotary year. Stu Lipoff told us about the Lego competition/service project which is August 20th at the Children's Discovery Museum which will be followed by a drink at Vics. So if you ever played with Legos and/or like to have a drink with friends sign up! Jerry Sennes told us the next highway cleanup September 16th, will include students from Palo Verde HS, and will be followed by his world famous brunch. Larry Cohn told us about the upcoming 25 Club social at the home of Don Holland. PP Jim "Ansel Adams" Tucker told us that he is available to take your photo for the roster if you are a new member. President Toni added, the funniest line of the day, that people who have a photo from 1984 can update theirs also if they want. Next we had a moving presentation by Bob Peiser honoring six Air Force airman as our Wetzels recipients. The patriotism continued as we presented a check of $2,400 to Tim Mullin and David Thorson of USO.

We had no time for formal fellowship, (though some of us talked anyway), with a packed schedule. Then PP Randy Campanale's lucky number was drawn but he did not pull the joker and thus did not get the almost $4,000 pot. Guest, Shawn Sennett, got the Lawry's Bucks. Next, President Toni brought up PP Randy Campanale to introduce our guest speaker Metro Sergeant Christopher Rivera. He gave a sobering talk about the street gangs of Las Vegas. After the presentation Sgt. Rivera was presented with the Salute to Service Award which represents a donation made to the USO Military Family Support Programs and a copy of our amazing Las Vegas Rotary Centennial book. We were then adjourned at 1:30 on the dot. - John Palley

Dear Toni,

We are so honored to be a recipient of a Las Vegas Rotary grant for our Oral History Research Center. The Rotary laid the foundation for the center and we are grateful for the ongoing support. Thank you!
Vlaggie Jamell

Toni,

Thank you so very much for believing in the work we are doing in the Oral History Research Center and for the generosity of Las Vegas Rotary! Your contribution will help us toward our goal of fully endowing the Center. Please let me know if we can ever do any thing for you + your fellow Rotarians. With Gratitude, Michael Beiler

Thank so much, your organization is amazing; your generosity outstanding!
Clayton
