Dear Mr. Ballard,

I reach out to you as we reflect on the genuine spirit of benevolence this season. It's a privilege to recognize your generous contribution of $21,648.30 to The Salvation Army, received on 11/28/2023.

In a year when numerous individuals have encountered unforeseen difficulties through calamities, illness, or unemployment, your unwavering generosity stands as a beacon of hope, bringing solace to those in distress during this holiday season.

Your trust in our dedication to delivering essential services is heartening. This encompasses food provisions, assistance with utilities and rent, after-school initiatives safeguarding and fostering the growth of at-risk youth, programs for the elderly that ensure accommodation, communal aid, and consistent nutritious meals, and shelters presenting all-encapsulating care to individuals of all ages. Your belief uplifts us all.

The requirements are as varied as the individuals we assist, yet our devotion to heeding the cries for aid remains steadfast. Your crucial collaboration is the backbone of our outreach endeavors.

Representing all those who benefit profoundly from your generosity, I extend my heartfelt thanks. May you be abundantly graced by God!

With profound gratitude,

Majors Harold & Magaly Laubach, Jr.
