

Maria Silva

Host of Vegas PBS Bienvenidos a Las Vegas

Maria Silva is proud to call Las Vegas home - the Silva family first arrived here in 1981.

She is a proud UNLV graduate with a broadcasting career spanning more than 25 years. She was able to attend UNLV – becoming the first in her family to graduate college – thanks in part to a scholarship from the Las Vegas Rotary Club.

Maria went on to become the first Anchor for Univision Las Vegas' Spanish-language newscast. She worked at two other news organizations in Southern Nevada before joining her Vegas PBS family in 2022. For Vegas PBS Maria hosts several shows including: Bienvenidos a Las Vegas, Student Spotlight, and Outdoor Nevada Presents: Tales from the Trails.

In 2019, Maria was inducted into the Nevada Broadcasters Association Hall of Fame. In addition, she has been recognized by the Las Vegas City Council as "Outstanding Hispanic in the Media." She's a proud member of Latinas in Power.

Maria believes in Community involvement and has several causes that are near and dear to her heart. After her beautiful Mama passed away from cancer in 2007, Maria had the honor of joining the American Cancer Society's Cancer Action Network and traveled to Washington D.C. several times to meet with lawmakers and lobby for cancer research and funding. She has served on several boards including Spread the Word Nevada and Positively Kids. She's emceed events for dozens of organizations including Nevada Childhood Cancer Foundation, UNLV The Center's TRIO/GEAR UP Day, Nathan Adelson Hospice, just to name a few.

WHAT IS ROTARY?

Rotary is a global network of 1.2 million neighbors, friends, leaders, and problem-solvers who see a world where people unite and take action to create lasting change – across the globe, in our communities, and in ourselves.

What We Have Accomplished.

DID YOU KNOW?

- January Service: 8 club members and 8 Palo Verde High School students cleaned our designated portion of the Red Rock Loop (Highway Clean Up), providing a total of 40 hrs of volunteer service.
- January Community Service: 3 Rotarians plus a former Rotarian provided 9 hrs of volunteer service at Discovery Museum's Community Resource Fair.
- Community Grants: Approved grant of $2,400 to Family To Family Connections for educational school supplies.
- Nevada Wheelchair: Over 25 children's wheelchairs were delivered locally and PP Brock Fraser distributed 100 wheelchairs in Reno; 1 wheelchair was delivered to a local young man and 4 members of the 'A Team' unloaded containers for 12 hrs of service.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

In an increasingly crowded landscape of non-profit service organizations, differentiation and innovation are key to standing out and competing effectively. Rotary can compete and thrive by leveraging its unique strengths, adapting to changing trends, and effectively communicating its impact. Special skills aren't required. You only need the passion and dedication to what Rotary is. Here are some strategies:

Focus on Impact: Rotary can differentiate itself by showcasing the tangible impact of its projects and initiatives. The opportunity happens organically in day-to-day activities. It can be as simple as drawing attention by wearing your Rotary pin and a conversation follows. By providing concrete examples of how its work improves communities, Rotary can attract donors and volunteers who want to make a meaningful difference.

Embrace Innovation: Continuously seek out new approaches and technologies to improve service delivery and efficiency. Whether it's implementing digital solutions for outreach and fundraising or experimenting with novel program models, innovation can help Rotary stay ahead of the curve and emerging trends in volunteerism and philanthropy.

Highlight Unique Value Proposition: Rotary can emphasize its unique value proposition, such as its focus on local and international service projects, and its commitment to ethical leadership development through programs like Rotary Youth Leadership Awards (RYLA) and Rotary Peace Fellowships.

Enhance Visibility and Branding: Rotary can enhance its visibility and branding through targeted marketing efforts, social media engagement, and storytelling. By effectively communicating its mission, values, and impact, Rotary can attract new supporters and inspire existing members to become ambassadors for the organization.

Cultivate Relationships: Foster strong relationships with donors, volunteers, and beneficiaries. Building a supportive community around the organization not only enhances its sustainability but also creates a network of advocates who can help promote its mission and attract new supporters.

Invest in Leadership Development: Rotary can invest in leadership development programs to equip its members with the skills and knowledge needed to navigate an increasingly competitive non-profit landscape. By nurturing effective leaders, Rotary can ensure the sustainability and success of its mission for years to come.

By staying true to its core values while adapting to changing times, Rotary can continue to make a significant impact in communities around the world. What brainstorming ideas do you have to help Rotary thrive in the world of increasing non-profits?

Earn passive income of 15 percent or more by investing in multifamily real estate.
