PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

March is Women's History Month, an annual celebration in the United States that celebrates the contributions of women all throughout the nation's history. Rotary has seen the remarkable contributions of countless women throughout its history. While the organization was initially male dominated, the inclusion of women has transformed and enriched Rotary in immeasurable ways.

The first impactful woman that comes to mind in Rotary is Sylvia Whitlock, who made history in 1987 by becoming the first female club president, later becoming District Governor for District 5300 in 2012-13. Despite facing resistance, Whitlock's determination and leadership paved the way for women to take on more prominent roles within Rotary clubs worldwide. Her groundbreaking presidency shattered barriers and inspired countless women to pursue leadership positions within the organization. If you don't know about Sylvia and her story, it's worth your time to research. Notable to District 5300 is Margaret Cooker, of the Victorville RC, who become our first female District Governor in 2001-02.

Another influential figure is Jennifer Jones, who made history as the first female Rotary International President in 2022-23. Her tenure focused on empowering women, engaging youth, and advancing Rotary's humanitarian efforts globally. Jones' presidency marked a significant milestone in Rotary's journey towards gender equality and inspired women to strive for leadership positions within the organization. If you haven't listened to one of her presentations, you should do so – articulate and inspiring.

Anne L. Matthews played a pivotal role in advocating for the inclusion of women in Rotary. As the first female member of the Rotary International Board of Directors, Matthews championed diversity and worked tirelessly to break down barriers preventing women from fully participating in Rotary's mission. Her efforts paved the way for greater gender parity within Rotary leadership and created opportunities for women to contribute their unique perspectives and talents to the organization. In 2005 Carolyn E. Jones began her term as the first woman appointed as trustee of The Rotary Foundation. There were other women of 'firsts' including Elizabeth S. Demaray, RI treasurer, or as recent as 2019, Brenda Marie Cressey, became the first woman to serve as vice-chair of The Rotary Foundation.

These impactful women in Rotary have not only shattered glass ceilings but have also inspired future generations of Rotarians within the organization. Their leadership and dedication have transformed Rotary into a more inclusive and dynamic global community, united in its commitment to service above self. Hone your own leadership skills and be impactful too!
