

Kimberly Weingarten

*Founder of Katie Weingartner Foundation
dba Katie Grace Foundation*

Kimberly and her family originated from Santa Rosa, California, moving to Reno, Nevada to give her daughter Katie the opportunity to play Volleyball. During their time in Reno, the family fell in love with the Northern Nevada community. Kimberly and Katie established themselves in the community, often volunteering their time, giving back to the underserved communities in Reno. Katie surrounded herself with love and positivity, always giving all she could, so those less fortunate would not go without.

Kimberly Weingartner began the foundation in 2017 after the tragic death of Katie. Through this tragedy and her grief, Kimberly focused her talents as an interior designer and Katie's spirit of helping others in the community to establish the Katie Grace Foundation. Kimberly began the foundation by awarding scholarships in Katie's name to High School Volleyball players and establishing a beautiful community garden.

She continued to work closely with several nonprofits in the community, enhancing their programs, establishing a system to provide new, unused items such as shoes, clothing, and move-in kits for needy people in Northern Nevada. As the foundation evolved, Kimberly collaborated with several local warehouses that believed in Kimberly and the foundation's mission to make a difference in the community.

Through these relationships, the foundation now works with various local warehouses diverting their overstock of products from landfills to the foundation. Currently the foundation provides support to 155 nonprofit organizations, supplying them with food, new clothing, shoes, school supplies, houseware items, hygiene items, and much more! Thank you, we are better together! Watch as we grow!

To know Katie was to be loved by Katie!
