President's Message

We've taken a hard look at the way things have always been done within our club, and asked the tough but necessary question: Is there a better way to do this?

This question isn't just about changing for the sake of change. It's about being intentional. It's about evolving so we can serve more effectively, engage more meaningfully, and adapt to a world that's constantly shifting.

Innovation doesn't always have to mean sweeping reform. Sometimes, it starts with small, personal shifts, how we communicate, how we plan meetings, how we welcome new members, or even how we think about service. These small steps create a ripple effect that can lead to broader, more impactful changes in our club culture.

We're not just keeping up—we're choosing to lead. And that begins with each of us being willing to reflect, to adapt, and to act.

Just like Las Vegas is known for its reinvention and energy, we too can lead with that same spirit, embracing bold ideas while staying grounded in our core values. That's how we stay relevant. That's how we grow. That's how we truly make a difference.

Janice

Rotary History

The little town that could...

In 1923, Las Vegas wasn't much more than a hot and dusty whistlestop. The Union Pacific depot functioned as the main gathering location, where residents observed the evening train to Los Angeles as it stopped to take on water. With the construction of the Dam looming, the Chamber of Commerce hired Les Saunders to promote Las Vegas to the world.

Les recounted an afternoon when he hurried to the depot to meet potential investors from the East during their brief stopover. These individuals had expressed mild interest in the possible development of desert land. Unfortunately, due to strong winds, they remained on the platform and refused to take a tour of the area, and the investment opportunity was lost.

One of the investors, intending to be humorous, asked Les if there was a place he could make up a Rotary meeting. It was a ridiculous question because Las Vegas was considered too remote and too small with only 2,300 people to be granted a Rotary Club charter. But sensing there might be an opportunity in that idea, Les reached out to the community leaders, produced some creative statistics, and eventually convinced Rotary International to experiment and give this little town in the desert a shot. Las Vegas Rotary Club became chartered April 5, 1923, and Les Saunders served a partial term as Las Vegas Rotary Club's first President.

Member Spotlight

Russ Swain

Managing Partner – Alera Group

This story is typical of Russ Swain-always looking for a way to be of service. In 2013, PP Russ went to Calgary to volunteer for an event with the Calgary Rotary Club (Murray's Club) and arrived a few days early. After learning that a severe flood in the region had displaced 100,000 individuals and caused significant destruction, PP Russ traveled to a nearby town "without a plan", where he found and assisted a family with the cleaning of their extensively damaged home.

He is an enthusiastic outdoorsman who participates in activities such as motorcycling, hiking, skiing, ATV riding, boating, and bird hunting. He generously offers both his skills and equipment to support Club initiatives, including beach cleanups and alpine hikes.

Professionally Russ is in the Insurance and Surety business which he learned from his father, and he officially joined the firm in 1979. Russ contributed to its growth through several mergers and integration with Alera Group Las Vegas, where he is now Managing Partner. He also serves on the WestCare Foundation Board and has volunteered with the Wheelchair Foundation of Nevada.

Fun Fact: Russ is an avid hiker and has completed the Grand Canyon Rim to Rim multiple times!
