Dori Koren

Assistant Sheriff, LVMPD

Dori Koren is a senior executive with proven success leading at scale. As an Assistant Sheriff with the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department, he directs an enterprise of 1,200 employees and a $321 million budget inside a 6,000-person, multibillion-dollar police organization. His portfolio has included crisis management, complex investigations, press conferences, policy development, union negotiations, vendor contracts, facilities, and organization-wide technology rollouts.

Koren built LVMPD Fusion Watch, a state-of-the-art operations hub, launched new citywide technology initiatives, and developed one of the most advanced police drone programs in the world. He has also helped manage some of the most complex crises in recent history, including the 1 October mass shooting and the 2025 Trump Towers car bombing, while consistently delivering organizational innovation and strategic outcomes. Koren has chaired international committees of top executives, advised the White House and Congress, and led cross-sector collaborations worldwide. He holds a B.A. from UNLV and an M.A. from the Naval Postgraduate School, and has been recognized nationally for innovation, leadership, and impact.

President's Message

The Rotary Club of Las Vegas plays a key role in supporting this economic transformation by addressing critical community needs. Through hands-on service, strategic partnerships, and financial support, our Club is making a tangible difference.

Las Vegas is actively working to diversify its economy beyond its traditional reliance on tourism and gaming. While the city has long thrived on its world-class entertainment and hospitality industries, recent trends point to a need for strategic reinvention.

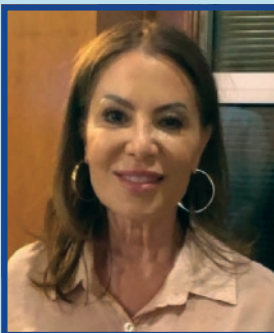

According to UNLV's Center for Business and Economic Research (CBER), after the post-pandemic boom, the tourism sector is expected to soften in 2025 and 2026. This includes a projected decline in visitor volume and gaming revenue—two pillars of Las Vegas' historical economic strength.

Our Rotary Club focuses on teaching youth essential life skills they need to succeed, and by continuing to support youth-focused organizations, we help prepare students for the jobs of tomorrow."

Janice

Say Hello!

Let's give a big Rotary welcome to Victoria Mistretta!

By day she's a tech whiz, but her true power comes from a passion for helping others. Victoria has spoken in D.C. on heart health, delivered countless Meals on Wheels, and spent more than 40 years supporting animal rescues. She's also helped women land jobs through Dress for Success and assisted seniors through Paint the Town.

With her big heart and boundless energy, Victoria is ready to dive into service — and we're thrilled to have her in the Rotary family. Be sure to give her a warm welcome today!

Rotary Proud: Rene Gamero

President Janice Lencke honored Rene Gamero with the "Rotary Proud" Award in recognition of his unwavering commitment to Service Above Self through his involvement with SOAR, RYLA, and Santa Clothes.

The Rotary Proud Award honors members who embody Rotary's mission — supporting education, strengthening communities, and living the Four-Way Test through action. Recipients like Rene don't just show up — they lead by example, inspiring others to get involved, give back, and make a difference. His dedication reflects the very best of what it means to be a Rotarian and reminds us all how powerful service can be when fueled by purpose and pride.

Rotary History

One Drop, One Child, One Future.

Few partnerships have embodied Rotary's spirit of "Service Above Self" more powerfully than the friendship between Mother Teresa and Rotary's PolioPlus campaign.

In the 1980s, as Rotary launched its ambitious global effort to eradicate polio, Mother Teresa opened the doors of her homes for the sick and poor in India to vaccination teams. She provided shelter for immunization stations and encouraged families to bring their children for the life-saving drops.

"Do not wait for leaders," she famously said. "Do it person to person." That same philosophy has guided Rotary's work to protect every child from polio — one door, one family, one village at a time.

Together, Rotary and Mother Teresa's network reached some of the most marginalized communities. Today, millions of children walk free from polio thanks to partnerships like this.

Weekly Showcase

Building a Better World: The 7 Pillars of Rotary Service -

The purpose of Rotary's Seven Areas of Focus is to guide clubs and members around the world in directing their service, funding, and energy toward the issues that make the greatest impact. They serve as a roadmap — helping Rotarians turn compassion into concrete action and ensuring that projects are meaningful, sustainable, and aligned with Rotary's global mission of creating lasting change. They address the root causes of poverty, conflict, and inequality.

ROTARY - 7 AREAS OF FOCUS

Promoting peace - Fighting disease - Promoting clean water, sanitation and hygiene - Saving mothers and children - Supporting education - Growing local economies - Protecting the environment

A Little Dirt Never Hurt -

Grab some gloves and join the fun as we team up with fellow Rotarians from Clubs representing Southern Nevada for the Rotary Park cleanup. You can expect fellowship, and a few stories about how this humble corner of Las Vegas has been a symbol of service and friendship for 67 years. Bring a potluck dish to share after our work is done.

The vision began in 1957–58 under President Walter Hunsaker. Twenty-five years later, clubs from Las Vegas, Moapa, and Caliente united to plant the Paul Harris Friendship Tree, and in 2003–04, another tree was planted in memory of Past District Governor Joe Buckley. Most recently, after Rotary Park was designated a Children's Park in 2024, both plaques were rededicated.

Rotary Park isn't your average patch of grass — this space is full of Rotary spirit (and plenty of shade). Now officially a Children's Park, it's where history and community keep growing side by side. Join us for the Rotary Park Clean Up and Potluck, October 18 at 8:00 am.

Member Spotlight

Greg Maguire

Security 101 – Force 10 – Marinus Port Services

Meet Greg Maguire — a man who makes "multi-hyphenate" look easy. He's the president and owner of three Las Vegas-based companies: Security 101 keeps businesses safe with top-tier security systems, Force 10 Logistics zips Amazon packages to your doorstep, and Marinus Port Services helps air and sea operations run smoothly across the country.

Before conquering the business world, Greg co-founded a Silicon Valley energy startup and even helped global companies scale through PwC projects. But here's the kicker: he also spent 25+ years as a U.S. Navy Captain and pilot — navigating nuclear aircraft carriers, shaping national aviation programs, and leading 600 recruiting offices worldwide.

Armed with degrees from USC, Johns Hopkins, and the Naval War College (to name a few). When he's not piloting planes or captaining ships, Greg's piloting Rotary's future as our incoming President and ringleader.

Fun Fact: Greg's not just navigating boardrooms — he's charting courses and dropping beats! A certified Master of Yachts, a licensed commercial pilot, and self-proclaimed Master DJ, when the moment calls for it.
