Rotary Etiquette Essentials

The Art of Inclusion

"I've learned that people will forget what you said, people will forget what you did, but people will never forget how you made them feel." — Maya Angelou.

That truth is the heartbeat of a great Rotary greeter. A warm handshake, a genuine hello, and greeting members by name instantly setting the tone. Welcoming visitors to the sign-in desk, connecting speakers with their host, and pairing newcomers with a friendly Rotarian ensures everyone feels seen, supported, and included from the moment they arrive.

Rotary History

A Century of Rotary at the Rose Parade

From a single inspired entry in 1923 to the dazzling 2026 design, Rotary's Rose Parade presence has grown into a beloved tradition. It began when the Rotary Club of Pasadena rolled out its first float. After additional appearances in 1927, 1946, and 1966, Rotary's role became annual in 1980, when clubs across the western United States sponsored a float honoring Rotary's 75th anniversary. That collaboration created the Rotary Rose Parade Float Committee, which still oversees fundraising and construction.

The Las Vegas Rotary Club proudly supported Rotary International's Rose Parade tradition with a January 6 post celebrating the 2026 float. This year's Tournament of Roses theme, "The Magic in Teamwork," came alive in a dazzling, nature-inspired design bursting with color and motion. The float showcased iconic wildlife working in harmony, symbolizing how Rotarians unite across borders to create lasting change.

Our own Martha Garcia traveled to Pasadena to help bring the float to life as part of the decorating team. Pictures Then and Now.

Weekly Showcase

Teen Leadership Camp (TLC)

Teen Leadership Camp (TLC) returns March 20–22, 2026 at Camp Cedar Crest—and registration is officially open! TLC is one of Rotary's most transformative youth programs, created for outstanding 8th graders who are just beginning to discover their strengths, voice, and potential. Rotary knows leadership doesn't suddenly appear in adulthood—it's built early through confidence, teamwork, and exposure to positive role models, and TLC delivers exactly that.

Over one powerful weekend, students join more than 200 peers from across District 5300 to participate in hands-on leadership labs, challenging team activities, and motivating sessions they help lead. Ask any past participant and you'll hear the same thing: TLC changes them. One quiet student put it perfectly—"Before camp, I wanted to be an architect and sit in the back. Now I want my own firm." If you know an 8th grader who would thrive in this environment, encourage them to apply. TLC could be the spark that shapes everything ahead.

4 Way Speech Competition – January 29

When Herbert J. Taylor created the 4-Way Test in 1932, he wasn't writing a Rotary slogan—he was trying to save a failing company during the Great Depression. Believing ethical clarity could guide both a business and its people, he crafted a 24-word compass: Is it the TRUTH? Is it FAIR? Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS? Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned? What began as a personal code soon became one of the most recognized ethical statements in the world and a cornerstone of Rotary values.

The speech competition emerged in the late 1940s and 1950s, as Rotary districts sought meaningful ways to share Taylor's philosophy with young people. Rather than recite it, students were invited to apply the Test to real ethical dilemmas important to them. That purpose remains. Students deliver original six-to-eight-minute speeches that weave the 4-Way Test throughout. Our Club competition will be held January 29—come hear how this year's students apply Taylor's timeless questions to today's world.

Member Spotlight

Antoinette Monroe

If there were a Rotary award for "Most Interesting Woman in the Room," Antoinette Monroe would win it before she even sat down. A real-estate powerhouse by day and the creative force behind Wine on Water Street by night, she somehow manages to pair market strategy with perfectly crafted tapas. Henderson calls her a community champion; we just call her unstoppable.

Behind that easy charm is some serious business firepower. Before launching The Monroe Group in 2019, Antoinette studied Political Science at Missouri State and spent a decade shaping economic and commercial development. Her roles as Director of Operations for the Las Vegas Global Economic Alliance and Vice President at DeSimone Companies put her at the center of regional growth, investment, and strategy—experience she now brings to clients and community projects alike.

She's also serving a two-year term on the Las Vegas Rotary Club Board of Directors, where her mix of strategic thinking, relationships and no-nonsense practicality has quickly made her indispensable. And she's not stopping there—Antoinette is a proud member of the Leadership Henderson Class of 2026, an immersive nine-month program that takes participants inside the real issues shaping Southern Nevada. Beyond all that? She's warm, welcoming, and fiercely protective. As a single mom, she takes safety seriously—trained, responsible, and gracefully confident, even in situations where most of us would be hiding behind a potted plant.

Fun Fact: When she's not closing deals, hosting at her wine bar, or rescuing DIY projects with superhero efficiency, she's outdoors, in the kitchen, or plotting her next grand adventure
