President's Message

Vegas truly is the fast track in all segments of our city — from conventions and cultural gatherings to outdoor fun and local celebrations. Rotarians will be out and about, engaging with the community, connecting with new people, and serving others as this lively month unfolds. I'm proud to live in a city that truly never sleeps — where excitement, development, and looking toward the future are always relevant.

And let's not forget, Cupid will make his appearance for Valentine's Day, a time to celebrate love, friendship, and connection with our significant others, family, and friends. Valentine's Day has its roots in a Christian feast honoring Saint Valentine, a third-century martyr associated with courtship and affection, and over time evolved into a widespread cultural celebration of love in all its forms. In our fast-paced community, Rotarians always find meaningful ways to celebrate this season of connection while continuing to serve and volunteer throughout Southern Nevada. Whether through service projects that spread kindness, support local needs, or bring people together, we embody the spirit of this season of care and community — proving that love and service go hand in hand.

Rotary Etiquette Essentials

Etiquette Reminder: Use of the Microphone

As a reminder of our club's meeting etiquette, the microphone is reserved for visiting Rotarians to briefly introduce themselves. While we are always happy to welcome and acknowledge guests of Rotarians, they are not offered the microphone. This practice helps us stay on schedule and reflects long-standing Rotary tradition. Thank you for your understanding and for helping our meetings run smoothly.

What's the difference between a Guest of a Rotarian and Guest of the Club?

Definition: Guest of a Rotarian

- Personally invited by an individual Rotarian
- That Rotarian is the host and responsible for introductions and courtesy
- Often a friend, family member, business contact, or prospective member
- Rotarian often pays for their guests or the guest pays

Definition: Guest of the Club

- Invited by our club or a member under the following circumstances:
 - o Perspective new member
 - o Honored community leaders
 - o Honored guests invited by the board or committee chairs
 - o Related to Speaker or Club President
- Our club covers the cost of their meal
- Membership co-chairs or the host Rotarian is responsible for greeting and introducing a guest of the Club

Rotary History

FRIENDS AND FAMILY OF ROTARY

You only need to look at Rotary's polio eradication effort to understand the scale of volunteer power required to immunize more than 2.5 billion children worldwide. From the beginning, Rotary's impact has relied not only on its members, but on the steady support of family, friends, and community partners.

In Rotary's early years, women were not permitted to be members, yet that did not deter Rotarians' wives from actively supporting projects and fellowship. Over time, this involvement became known as the "Rotary Anns." The name dates to 1914, when San Francisco Rotarians traveled by train to the Houston convention. Ann Brunnier—the wife of a Rotarian Henry Brunnier, and the only woman aboard for part of the journey—was introduced along the way as "the Rotarian's Ann." The name stuck, becoming a worldwide term that recognized the essential role spouses played in Rotary life. Following the 1987 policy change welcoming women as members, the term gradually became part of Rotary history. Pictured is the original Rotary Ann and her husband.

Today, our Club proudly carries that spirit forward through Friends and Family of Rotary. This informal group of spouses, partners, and significant others shares fellowship and service by leading a signature project benefiting the USO, the Salvation Army, and Project 150, while also supporting Club projects such as Breakfast and Snack Time with Books and Santa Clothes. To the Friends and Family of Rotary with us today, thank you for the many ways you strengthen our Club. Those interested are warmly invited to learn more—please see Karen Whisenhunt or Pam Samoulis.
