President's Message

April is our month to live out what it truly means to be People of Action.

At the Rotary Club of Las Vegas, action isn't just a theme—it's how we serve. We focus on our impact through core areas that create lasting change:

- Local Community Service—Identifying real needs right here in Las Vegas and taking hands-on action through food drives, mentoring, and community cleanups.
- International Initiatives – Partnering with Rotarians across the globe on large-scale efforts, including the ongoing fight to eradicate polio—an effort that has raised more than $2.9 billion.

- People of Action Campaign – Showcasing how we bring people together, find solutions, and create hope in our communities and beyond.

With more than 35,000 clubs worldwide, Rotary's strength lies in its structure—local clubs, Rotary International, and The Rotary Foundation—working together to fund and carry out meaningful, sustainable projects.

Through service and connection, we are proud to be proactive agents of positive change—ensuring the work we do today creates a stronger tomorrow.

Join us this month as we turn action into impact.

Say Hello!

Meet Erika Brandeberry—Sales Manager at Appliance by Design and a powerhouse of energy, authenticity, and results. With 28+ years in sales and training, she turns relationships into results and customers into raving fans. A Portland native, Erika made the move to Las Vegas—and brought most of her family with her—so life centers on connection with her. Off the clock, you'll find her with her husband, her six-year-old grandson, and her dogs - who may or may not run the house.

Her passion is leveling up, building winning teams, or creating unforgettable experiences. And those great photos in The Wheel this week? That's her handiwork—we thank her for jumping in as our photographer. Find Erika, say hello... and give her a well-earned welcome to Rotary.

Rotary Etiquette Essentials

The Art of Guiding the Club

Behind every strong Rotary club is a Board doing work you don't always see—but you absolutely feel. In Rotary the Board isn't "in charge" in the traditional sense. They're stewards of momentum—quietly shaping direction so the club can do its best work.

The Board sets the strategic direction, ensuring the club stays aligned with Rotary's mission. They provide financial and ethical oversight, safeguarding both trust and resources. And perhaps most importantly, they support committees—empowering others to step up, lead, and serve.

That's the art:

- Not control—but guidance
- Not spotlight—but stewardship
- Not holding on—but lifting up

Rotary History

Shanghai: Where Rotary Began in China

In June 2026, Rotarians from around the world will gather in Taipei for the Rotary International Convention—yet Rotary’s roots in Asia trace back to Shanghai, home to the first club in China and second in Asia.

That story begins in 1919, when a visiting Rotarian saw more than a bustling port—he saw possibility. With local leaders, Rotary took root. One remarkable early project that Rotarians supported alongside the Salvation Army was “Beggar Town,” a humanitarian effort providing temporary shelter, education, and vocational training to more than 1,500 people, helping them rebuild their lives.

A favorite tradition at the Shanghai Club, is “Happy Money.” Members rise to share what’s making them happy, sad, or curious... then drop a contribution into the collection receptacle—once a worn wooden bucket, now something far more memorable. A sister club from Pendleton, Oregon elevated the tradition with a handcrafted leather “Saddle,” and today it’s proudly passed around the room. Slip up and call it a “bucket”? That’s a fineable offense.

Nevada Reading Week – Will Beckley Elementary

What happens when students are challenged to read 1,000 books in a week? During Nevada Reading Week, Will Beckley students didn't just meet the goal—they crushed it. Their reward? Principal Shannon Brown, Counselor Chris Caprino, and Vice Principal Alea Henderson became living ice cream sundaes.

Shannon will be at this week's meeting—be sure to say hello and congratulate her on inspiring a love of reading. Thank you to all who volunteered—you helped make moments like this possible.

Next up: Breakfast/Snack Time with Books on April 21 at Beckley and Hollingsworth—don't miss it- last one this year!

Rotary Leadership Institute - Spotlight: Insights, Energy, and "Aha" Moments

Six of our members recently participated in the Rotary Leadership Institute—as both attendees and presenters. If you couldn't make it, here are a few highlights and takeaways straight from our club's representatives.

Nancy Anderson - Today was the first session of a 3-part session to complete your RLI training and want to say I learned more about Rotary and have a better understanding of the role of the President and the duties involved. Also, we talked about the Rotary Foundation and ways to be a better leader and the why of being a Rotarian. Overall, the training today was excellent, and I encourage every board member to attend.

Toni Kern - A great program that may be under appreciated. There is always something to be learned and with a group of great participants and facilitators you walk away with 'special nuggets.'

Larry Cohn - The RLI event yesterday was a great learning experience with everyone adding value to the day!

Rita Burton - I think every Rotarian should experience Rotary Leadership Institute—whether you joined last month or decades ago. The energy, the exchange of ideas, and the powerful fellowship with members from other clubs left me inspired and recharged. It was a day well spent!

Member Spotlight

Larry Cohn

Larry Cohn's story begins with a plot twist worthy of a Vegas opening act—born in New York City, a childhood move west for his health changed his trajectory. Southern California became his proving ground, where he earned a finance degree from California State University, Northridge and planted deep roots in Orange County. But Larry didn't just build a career—he built community. For 30 years, he showed up everywhere it mattered: nonprofit boards, President of the Santiago Canyon College Foundation, and youth sports sidelines—coaching with as much heart as he brought to the boardroom.

At home, he's been married to Mary for 35+ years - clearly a long-term investment strategy that paid off, and together they've raised four children and now cheer on nine grandchildren. Since arriving in Las Vegas in 2020, Larry hasn't exactly embraced "retirement." Rotarian, mentor, volunteer—and still running two tech companies. Off-duty? Golf, pickleball, fine dining, classic cars, and a great playlist—now that's Larry's version of a perfect day. For Larry, success isn't just what you build—it's who you build it with.

Fun fact: Before all that, Larry spent seven years mastering the violin—proof he's always known how to handle the strings.
