KAREN AMBROSE, COO SUNRISE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL

Karen Ambrose is a healthcare executive with more than a decade of experience in operations, strategic planning and organizational growth. As chief operating officer of Sunrise Children's Hospital in Las Vegas, she helped guide operational strategy, strengthen physician and team engagement, and support the hospital's continued growth in service to children and families across the region.

Before joining Sunrise Children's Hospital, Ambrose served as vice president of operations at HCA Healthcare's TriStar Centennial Women's and Children's Hospital in Nashville, Tennessee. In that role, she led key initiatives including the expansion of the hospital's OB emergency room from seven to 10 beds and the launch of a $55 million hospital transformation project.

Her HCA Healthcare background also includes service as execution director for HCA Corporate's Clinical Services Group and as senior project manager for strategy and innovation at Parallon, HCA Healthcare's administrative support platform. Before joining HCA Healthcare, Ambrose held progressive leadership roles at Ascension Saint Thomas in Nashville, building broad experience across healthcare operations, clinical services and systemwide improvement.

Colleagues described Ambrose as a leader with a strong record of advancing healthcare operations, strategic growth and team engagement. Her work reflected a commitment to improving systems of care while supporting clinical teams, physicians, patients and families.

Ambrose holds a Master of Health Administration and a Bachelor of Allied Health from Ohio State University. She has also contributed to community organizations, serving as executive chair for March for Babies, a March of Dimes fundraising event, and as a board member for Ronald McDonald House Nashville.

Founded in 1989, Sunrise Children's Hospital is Nevada's first children's hospital and the largest and most comprehensive children's hospital in the state. The hospital shares a campus with Sunrise Hospital and Medical Center, which is owned and operated by HCA Healthcare.

President's Message

What Have You Done with Rotary This Year?

As we approach the final four months of the calendar year, it's a good time to pause and ask ourselves a simple question:

What have I done with Rotary this year?

Have you attended our weekly luncheon? That's a great start, but Rotary offers so much more.

Have you participated in a service project? Invited a prospective member? Attended a social event or corporate tour? Served on a committee? Donated to The Rotary Foundation? Mentored a student? Helped organize an event? Shared one of our projects on social media?

Rotary was never intended to be a lunch club. It is a service organization made up of people who are committed to making a difference in their communities and around the world. Our motto, Service Above Self, is more than a slogan. It's a way of life.

As your President, I encourage each of us to set one or two personal Rotary goals before the end of the year. Attend an event you've never attended. Volunteer for a project. Bring a guest to a meeting. Join a committee. Find a way to use your talents to strengthen our club.

The success of the Las Vegas Rotary Club will never be measured solely by the number of members we have, but by the number of members who are actively engaged in our mission.

Together, we can accomplish far more than any one of us could alone.

So, I'll leave you with one final question:

When December 31 arrives, what will you be proud to say you accomplished through Rotary?

Member Spotlight

Todd Walter

Todd Walter brings a lifetime of service to Las Vegas Rotary, where this year he serves on the Board of Directors, leading the club's international service projects.

Service has been Todd's calling since he graduated from Western Maryland College in 1991 and devoted himself to Scouting. Over the next three decades, his work carried him and his family from Baltimore to Florida, Ohio, and North Carolina. In 2020, he was thrilled to be named Scout Executive and CEO of our own Las Vegas Area Council, Scouting America in 2020, leading the organization that shapes young leaders across Southern Nevada.

Rotary has been part of Todd's life for years. He spent a decade as a member of the Orange Park Rotary Club in District 6970 before bringing his energy to Las Vegas, and he is also a Paul Harris Fellow, a mark of his commitment to The Rotary Foundation. He was recruited into our club by Past Presidents Michael Gordon and Russ Swain.

Family is at the center of it all. Todd has been happily married to his high school sweetheart, Lisa, for more than 34 years. They have two children, Tyler, who lives in Maryland, and Caitlin, a vet tech now in Charlotte, NC. When he is not working or serving, Todd loves fishing, hiking, rugby, traveling, and sharing the outdoors with the people he loves.

August is scouting's major recruitment month for new members. Don't forget to tell your friends, neighbors, and coworkers about the great things scouting does for our young men and women.

Next time you see Todd at Lawry's, pull up a chair. Ask him about a life in Scouting, his years in Rotary, or the best fishing spot he has found. You will meet a man who has built his whole life around service.

Rotary vs. Kiwanis: A Friendly Competition That Fights Hunger

Every fall, the Las Vegas Rotary Club and Kiwanis Club turn friendly competition into meaningful community service through their annual Canned Food Drive.

For several years, the two service organizations have competed in a canned food drive. In 2009, in addition to donating actual cans, the program was expanded to raise money to buy food for the Salvation Army and local hunger-relief programs. Through its partnership with Three Square Food Bank, every dollar raised can provide approximately three nutritious meals. Since the drive began in partnership began, Las Vegas Rotary reports that its efforts have provided more than 2 million cans of food, while raising more than $223,000 to help families and individuals facing food insecurity.

The competition is spirited, but the real winner is the community.

In 2025, Kiwanis took the trophy for the first time in seven years, with the fundraising results equivalent to approximately 166,000 cans for Kiwanis compared with 149,000 for Rotary.

That friendly rivalry demonstrates what service clubs can accomplish when they combine energy, generosity, and a little competitive spirit. The annual drive culminates in a joint Rotary-Kiwanis meeting around Thanksgiving, where the results are announced and the winning team takes home bragging rights.

Las Vegas Rotary hopes to take back the trophy this year. But the greatest reward isn't a trophy, it is knowing that our competition helps put food on the tables of Las Vegas families in need. For Las Vegas Rotary, the canned food drive is another example of what happens when people come together to Unite for Good.

Rotary Club of Annapolis

As Maryland's capital, Annapolis is a city where history and the Chesapeake Bay are woven into everyday life. Colonial streets, the Maryland State House, and the U.S. Naval Academy draw visitors from around the world, while the city's working waterfront reflects a centuries-old maritime heritage. Chartered on February 11, 1921, the Rotary Club of Annapolis is club number 685, part of District 7620, and today has more than 160 members, making it one of the largest and most active Rotary clubs in Maryland.

The club is best known for hosting the World's Largest Crab Feast, an Annapolis tradition that began more than 80 years ago and now attracts more than 1,000 guests each summer to Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium. Far more than a community celebration, the event is the club's primary fundraiser. Since 2005, proceeds have provided more than $1 million in grants to local nonprofit organizations serving children, families, veterans, and those in need throughout Anne Arundel County. Few Rotary events are as closely identified with their community as the Annapolis Crab Feast, making it one of Maryland's signature charitable traditions. Growing up on the Chesapeake Bay, I would give my left arm to eat Chesapeake Blue Crabs and cannot encourage you enough to make it to next year's event.

The Rotary Club of Annapolis also maintains an international perspective through long-standing sister-club relationships with clubs in Dartmouth and Arundel, England, and Tábor, Czech Republic, fostering friendship and collaboration across borders. Closer to home, members volunteer on projects ranging from Rebuilding Together home renovations and Salvation Army bell ringing to community cleanups and strengthening relationships with the U.S. Naval Academy.

If you would like to visit the Rotary Club of Annapolis, they meet every Thursday at 12:00 p.m. at the Annapolis Yacht Club, 2 Compromise Street.

The Rotary Club of Kingston

Set against the backdrop of the Blue Mountains and the sparkling Caribbean Sea, Kingston is the vibrant heart of Jamaica. As the island's capital, it is a city of music, culture, and resilience—the birthplace of reggae, home to the Bob Marley Museum, and a gateway to the magnificent Blue and John Crow Mountains National Park. The Rotary Club of Kingston, club 6781, was chartered in 1959 and part of district 7020. Over the past six decades, the club has developed a remarkable record of community service, completing major projects that have strengthened schools, hospitals, youth organizations, and neighborhoods throughout the country.

For more than a quarter century, the Rotary Club of Kingston's annual charity golf tournament has been the driving force behind many of the club's most significant service projects. Generating nearly 40 percent of the club's annual fundraising income, the tournament has financed homes for families in need, community centers, computer laboratories in schools, medical equipment for children's hospitals, wheelchair donations, and other initiatives that have improved lives across Jamaica.

In recent years, members have established a wellness center for children with special needs, created a pediatric cancer isolation room at the University Hospital of the West Indies, built computer laboratories and playgrounds for schools, restored homes for residents of Cheshire Village, and developed the nationally recognized Biz Town program, where students learn entrepreneurship by operating their own miniature businesses. Together, these initiatives demonstrate the club's long-standing commitment to improving health, education, and opportunity throughout Jamaica.

If you would like to visit the Rotary Club of Kingston, they meet every Thursday at 12:30 p.m. at The Jamaica Pegasus Hotel, Kingston.
